GENERAL RULES - 2024

1. SHOW PARTICIPATION: An exhibitor must be in 3rd grade - 12th grade. The exhibitor must be enrolled in a FFA Chapter, Junior FFA Chapter, FCCLA Chapter, or Clay County 4H Club before November 1st (of the previous year) and attending a public school in Clay County. Clay County 4H members or Junior FFA members that do not attend a Clay County Public School must be a Clay County resident and either be home-schooled or attending another school outside the county. The exhibitor must have continuously, personally fed and cared for his animal under the supervision of the County Extension Agent or Agriculture Science Teacher to be eligible to enter competition. Clay County exhibitors cannot participate in more than one county show per academic year.
2. INTERPRETATION AND VIOLATION OF RULES: The show is governed by its Executive Committee and division superintendents. That body has the final and absolute right to interpret the rules and regulations and to arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, or connected with, incidents during the show. Exhibitors who violate any of the rules, will forfeit all privileges and premiums and be subject to such penalties as the Executive Committee may order. The Executive Committee is comprised of the Clay County Junior Livestock Association board president, vice president, and secretary.
3. PROTESTS: All protests must be in writing. A $50.00 deposit must accompany said complaint. If the complaint is justified, the deposit will be returned, but if the complaint is not justified, the deposit will be forfeited and deposited in the Clay County Junior Livestock Show fund. Protests must be made within 1 hour after the class is judged.
4. EXHIBITORS ELIGIBILITY: All exhibitors must be academically eligible, as of 8:00 AM on 12-12-23, to participate in the show and sale. A completed eligibility form from the school must verify this. Entries owned by students who are determined academically ineligible will in no way be exhibited or sold at the premium sale and floor sale. Academically ineligible exhibitors will also be removed from the show's "Add-On" list.
5. EXHIBITOR SUBSTITUTIONS: All animal and poultry entries must be exhibited and sold by the owner. Breeding animal exhibitors must be present for show. A substitute exhibitor may be used under the following conditions:
 - a) an exhibitor has more than one entry in the show and cannot be present to show their animal, or
 - b) an exhibitor is sick, or
 - c) approved school activities, district competitions, etc.

The Executive Committee may use their own discretion as to whether substitute showmen will be allowed. If the Executive Committee renders a positive decision, the substitute showman must meet all set requirements for a Clay County Junior Livestock Show exhibitor. The Executive Committee may require documentation in any of the above conditions (a, b, or c).
6. EXHIBITOR'S PHYSICALLY UNABLE TO SHOW: Any exhibitor who is physically unable to exhibit his/her animal must be present in the show ring within a reasonable proximity to his/her animal which is being exhibited by an approved substitute showman. The show's Executive Committee must approve any exceptions to this rule.

7. ANIMAL ELIGIBILITY: Market animals which have previously been sold at a major or minor livestock show, are ineligible to enter the Clay County Livestock Show. No market animals can be shown in a breeding class. Any project that has previously been sold at the Clay County Junior Livestock Show may be shown but is not eligible to make the sale.
8. ANIMAL GROOMING AND FITTING: No grooming material other than water is allowed on the day of the show unless stated otherwise in special division rules. The use of unethical fitting practices will not be tolerated on any animal exhibited at the show.
9. BEDDING: No bedding will be provided for any entries. Clean up your bedding and area before leaving.
10. ENTRY DEADLINE AND FEES: All entries must be completed using the county show online entry platform and approved by the county agent or agricultural science teacher. Payment for all entries must be paid either online (at the time of entry) or by bringing a check to the Extension Office. FFA Chapters will pay for all their members with one check. The online entry platform will open on November 13, 2023 and will close on December 1, 2023.
 - a) Breeding Rabbits - $15.00 per head
 - b) Meat Rabbits & Broilers - $15.00 per pen
 - c) Dairy Heifers, Beef Heifers, & Market Steers - $15.00 per head
 - d) Meat Goats, Market Lambs, and Market Hogs - $15.00 per head
 - e) Breeding Goats, Breeding Sheep, and Breeding Swine - $15.00 per head
 - f) Ag Mechanics - $ 15.00 per exhibitor
 - g) Youth Fair - $10.00 per entry.
11. ANIMAL HEALTH REQUIREMENTS: All animals being exhibited, must meet state health requirements. All animals exhibited in the show must not have any open wound from castration or dehorning.
12. DISPLAY OF EXHIBITS: All exhibits are to be on display at the Perry D. Woods Agriscience Facility in Henrietta, Texas.
13. SIFTS: ALL livestock entered in the show will be sifted. The sifting judge reserves the right to accept or reject any entry unconditionally and does not guarantee space in the show to any entry since it is intended that only such animals shall be entered and shown as have merit and will be a credit to both exhibitor and show.
14. ANIMAL BEHAVIOR: If an animal's behavior is questionable, the available Agriculture Science Teacher or County Agent will make the final decision on whether the animal is to be removed from the show.
15. SELECTION OF CHAMPIONS: In the selection of the grand and reserve champion of each division/class, when the grand champion has been determined from the first-place animals of each class, the second-place animal from its class will be moved forward to determine the reserve champion.
16. JUDGES DECISION IS FINAL: The judges' decisions will be final.

17. PREMIUM SALE:

- The premium sale is for premium monies only. Premium sale buyers do not have an option to take ownership of any sale item.
- ALL sale items are to be taken through the sale by the owners (UNLESS APPROVED BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE).
- Exhibitors will be limited to the sale of ONE lot (Animal, Ag Mechanics Project, or Youth Fair Project).
- Only the exhibitor and his/her sale item will be allowed in the sale ring during the premium sale (UNLESS APPROVED BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE).
- Youth Fair projects that qualify for entry in the Youth Fair premium sale will be sold before the livestock champions. Again, this is now a premium sale and the items themselves will not be sold. The Youth Fair sale order is as follows:
 - a) Grand Champion Creative Arts and Grand Champion Foods (one from each age division)
 - 1. Senior
 - 2. Intermediate
 - 3. Junior
 - b) Reserve Champion Creative Arts and Reserve Champion Foods (one from each age division)
 - 1. Senior
 - 2. Intermediate
 - 3. Junior.
- Only shown animals are eligible for the sale.
- Livestock sale rotation will follow the order indicated below (market animals and then breeding animals):
 - a) 2023 Show - Beef, Dairy, Swine, Goats, Sheep, Poultry, Rabbits, Ag Mechanics
 - b) 2024 Show - Beef, Dairy, Goats, Sheep, Poultry, Rabbits, Ag Mechanics, Swine
 - c) 2025 Show - Beef, Dairy, Sheep, Poultry, Rabbits, Ag Mechanics, Swine, Goats
 - d) 2026 Show - Beef, Dairy, Poultry, Rabbits, Ag Mechanics, Swine, Goats, Sheep
 - e) 2027 Show - Beef, Dairy, Rabbits, Ag Mechanics, Swine, Goats, Sheep, Poultry
 - f) 2028 Show - Beef, Dairy, Ag Mechanics, Swine, Goats, Sheep, Poultry, Rabbits.
- There will be no decorations on any premium sale animal lots.

18. DETERMINING PREMIUM SALE LOTS: Premium sale lots will be determined as outlined below:

- a) All grand and reserve champion market and breeding animals will make the sale. Additional lots will be selected based on a percentage of total animals confirmed. Division champions will sell after the grand and reserve champions and before class placings.
- b) If an exhibitor has more than one lot qualified for the sale, that exhibitor will be allowed to sell only ONE.
- c) The sale percentage will be determined based on 100 lots.
- d) Ag teachers/Extension Agent will be required to confirm entry numbers that will be exhibited with the show secretary by the Tuesday before the County Show begins.
- e) Divide the total number of confirmed animal exhibitors into 100, then that percentage of all divisions listed above is to be sold.
 - 1. Only those eligible to compete in the show ring will used to calculate sale percentages. If a person has two animals, only ONE will figure in the percentage for the sale. If the animal is eligible to show, the person can show more than one, but he can only sell ONE.

2. The percentage of animals sold is calculated on number of exhibitors, not on number of animals in the class.
 3. Sale numbers will round to the nearest whole number to determine sale lots.
 4. In the event an exhibitor chooses not to sell an animal, we will bump lots up to allow someone to take their place. WE WILL NOT BUMP FOR GRAND OR RESERVE CHAMPIONS.
19. SALES COMMISSION: The sales commission for the CCJLS is 3%. Sales commission will be charged on all animals and youth fair items that sell through the premium sale, all animals being sold on the livestock show floor, and all add-on contributions made to exhibitors. Sales commission will be deducted from exhibitor checks.
20. PREMIUM PAYMENT:
- All unclaimed checks will be shredded and canceled on October 1 of the year following the livestock show and funds will be returned to the general fund.
 - There will be a charge of $25 to reissue any lost check.

LIVESTOCK SHOWMANSHIP

1. Exhibitors of rabbits, beef, dairy, swine, sheep, goats, ag mechanics, and poultry are eligible to be judged for a showmanship award.
2. There will be two (2) showmanship divisions: Junior and Senior. The Junior Division is for exhibitors that are 13 years old and under. The Senior Division is for exhibitors that are older than 13.
3. For the showmanship competition, exhibitors must use their own animal that was entered and judged during the show.
4. If an exhibitor's AST/CEA and show superintendent deem an exhibitor's own animal unsuitable to return for showmanship competition, the exhibitor will be allowed use a substitute animal drawn from a pool of like species from their home organization.
5. The show will obtain the services of a separate showmanship judge to do preliminary showmanship contestant selection for junior & senior showmanship awards. Upon selection of preliminary showmanship contestants, the official livestock judge will make the final selection of junior and senior showmanship award winners. The official rabbit and poultry judges will make all showmanship selections in their respective divisions.
6. Preliminary selection of swine, sheep, and goat showmanship contestants will be limited to a maximum of 10 participants in each showmanship division unless approved by the show superintendent. Preliminary selection of beef showmanship contestants will be limited to a maximum of 8 participants in each showmanship division unless approved by the show superintendent.

CLAY COUNTY YOUTH FAIR 2024 RULES

1. All divisions will be subject to the Clay County Junior Livestock Show General Rules except where they conflict with the requirements of this youth fair in which case the show rules will prevail.
2. YOUTH FAIR PARTICIPATION: An exhibitor must be in the 3rd grade through the 12th grade to compete. The exhibitor must be enrolled in a FFA Chapter, Junior FFA Chapter, FCCLA Chapter or Clay County 4H Club before November 1 (of the previous year) and be attending a public school in Clay County. Clay County 4H members or Junior FFA members that do not attend a Clay County public school must be a Clay County resident and either be home-schooled or attending another school outside the county.
3. INTERPRETATION AND VIOLATION OF RULES: The youth fair is governed by its Executive Committee, and division superintendents. That body has the final and absolute right to interpret the rules and regulations and to arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, or connected with, incidents during the youth fair. Exhibitors who violate any of the rules, will forfeit all privileges and premiums and be subject to such penalties as the Executive Committee may order. The youth fair Executive Committee is comprised of the youth fair superintendents and committee members.
4. PROTESTS: All protests must be in writing. A $50.00 deposit must accompany said complaint. If the complaint is justified, the deposit will be returned, but if the complaint is not justified, the deposit will be forfeited and deposited in the Clay County Junior Livestock Show fund. Protests must be made within 1 hour after the class is judged.
5. EXHIBITORS ELEGIBILITY: All exhibitors must be academically eligible to participate in the youth fair and premium sale, as of 8:00 AM on 12-12-23, to participate in the youth fair and sale. A completed eligibility form from the school must verify this. A letter from the school considering the immediate previous grading period must verify this. Entries owned by students who are determined academically ineligible will in no way be exhibited or sold at the premium sale. Academically ineligible exhibitors will also be removed from the youth fair's "Add-On" list.
6. ENTRY DEADLINE AND FEES: All entries will be done online. Fees are to be in the County Agents' office or respective Ag/FCCLA Teachers' office on Friday, December 3, 2021 (also see rule #1). The deadline for photography entries will be noon, Friday, December 3, 2021, IN THE EXTENSION OFFICE. Photographs are to be turned in the same day along with entry form and fees. The Youth Fair fee is $10.00 per class in each of the three categories. The Photography contest fee is $5.00.
7. AGE BRACKETS OF EXHIBITORS:
 - a) Junior - 3rd through 5th grade
 - b) Intermediate - 6th through 8th grade
 - c) Senior - 9th through 12th grade
8. DISPLAY OF EXHIBITS: All exhibits must be on display in the Henrietta High School Cafeteria until release time. Exhibitors will be responsible for picking up entries at the time designated on the CCJLS official schedule. Agents, AgriScience Teachers, CCJLS, or Youth Fair Committee will not be responsible for unclaimed items.
9. EXHIBITORS' WORK: Each entry must be the work of the exhibitor and must NOT have been previously entered in the Clay County Youth Fair. Recipes should not be used 2 years in a row. ALL ENTRIES MUST BE ABLE TO FIT THROUGH JUDGING ROOM DOOR.

10. ONE ENTRY PER CLASS: An individual may have only one entry per class.
11. RIBBONS: Classes with only one entry will not necessarily be given a first-place ribbon if judges determine the entry does not deserve that place.
12. SELECTION OF CHAMPIONS: When the grand champion of each division has been determined from the first-place entry of each class, the second-place entry from its class will be moved forward to be judged for reserve champion.
13. JUDGES DECISION IS FINAL: The judges' decisions will be final.
14. PREMIUM SALE:
 - The premium sale is for premium monies only. Premium sale buyers do not have an option to take ownership of any sale item.
 - ALL sale items are to be carried through the sale by the owners (UNLESS APPROVED BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE).
 - Exhibitors will be limited to the sale of ONE lot (Animal, Ag Mechanics Project, or Youth Fair Project).
 - Only the exhibitor and his/her sale item will be allowed in the sale ring during the premium sale (UNLESS APPROVED BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE).
 - Grand and reserve champion youth fair entries, from each class, may be sold through the premium sale (Foods & Creative Arts – 12 lots) prior to the livestock champions. Alternates will be sold in the event a Grand Champion or Reserve Champion does not sell. Again, this is now a premium sale and the items themselves will not be sold. The youth fair sale order is as follows:
 - b) Grand Champion Creative Arts and Grand Champion Foods (one from each age division)
 1. Senior
 2. Intermediate
 3. Junior
 - b) Reserve Champion Creative Arts and Reserve Champion Foods (one from each age division)
 4. Senior
 5. Intermediate
 6. Junior.
 - All food items selling in the premium sale must be remade FRESH for the sale.
15. SALES COMMISSION: The sales commission for the CCJLS is 3%. Sales commission will be charged on all animals and youth fair items that sell through the premium sale, all animals being sold on the livestock show floor, and all add-on contributions made to exhibitors. Sales commission will be deducted from exhibitor checks.

YOUTH FAIR CATEGORIES

- I. FOODS - Tape the recipe for your entry WITHOUT identification, (name, club, etc.) on the top of your food container.
